

SOUTH SUBURBAN ARCHAEOLOGICAL SOCIETY
PRESENTS A FREE ILLUSTRATED LECTURE

SHARON QUARCINI, Art Historian

THE UNTOLD STORY OF The Plague in Medieval Europe

The plague in Medieval Europe is a topic of curiosity and fascination. Afflicting millions of the general population in Europe and other parts of the world it changed the scope of humanity because of its effects. With the help of past and present day evidence we can investigate and understand the plague and its imprint on medieval Europe and the 21st century. Medieval Europe experienced a pestilence so horrific that it changed the world forever.
