The New Philadelphia Story

In 1836 “Free” Frank McWorter established New Philadelphia, the first town in the U.S.A. to be legally founded by an African-American. Come learn how the importance of New Philadelphia was re-established through the work of archaeologists, historians, and descendants, reversing decades of historical amnesia.

Christopher Fennell is a professor at the University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign, and the University of Chicago. He has worked extensively to renew the memory of New Philadelphia.
